

Day 1 Highlights from Food Japan

25 October 2018, Friday

The 7th edition of Food Japan kicked off in Singapore with a packed exhibition hall and a sake barrel ceremony on J-Studio stage. Here's a quick recap of the highlights from Day 1.

Opening Ceremony (L-R) Ms Junko Ishii, Managing Director, Japan External Trade Organisation (JETRO Singapore); Mr Andrew Phua, Director, Singapore Tourism Board (Exhibitions & Conferences); Mr Masanao Nishida, Director, OJ Events; H. E. Jun Yamazaki, Ambassador, Embassy of Japan and Dr Gan Heng Hui, Senior Specialist (Food Chemistry & Safety) and Senior Lecturer Food Product Development & Food Safety Centre, Nanyang Polytechnic.

First ever showcase in Food Japan - Bluefin Tuna produced by a Kindai university fisheries laboratory.

Visitors get up-close in an exclusive Masterclass with Sake Sommelier.

Platform for Southeast Asia key buyers from retail, wholesale, hospitality and food services to source Japanese prefecture specialties.

200+ exhibitors from 30 prefectures in Japan displaying their latest products and services.